CHAPTER I. 1 The creation of heaven and earth, 3 of the light, 6 of the firmament, 9 of the earth separated from the voters, 11 and made fruight, 14 of the sen, moon, and stars, 20 of jish and fowl, 24 of bests and cuttle, 25 of mas in the image of God. 20 Also the appointment of food.

In the "beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was without form. and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spi-rit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

the waters.

8 *And God said, 'Let there be light: and there was light.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided 2 the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light /Day, and the darkness he called Night. 3And the evening and the morning were the first day.

6 4 And God said. Let there be a 4 firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were 'above the firmament: the evening was, and the mornand it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 ¶ And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.
10 And God called the dry land

10 And Got called the dry tame Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth 'bring forth 'grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit of the high whose seed grant the season of the fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good. 18 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 ¶ And God said, Let there be "lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, multiply, and replenish the earth, and and ofor seasons, and for days, and years:

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give the nrmament of the neaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so. 16 And God? made two great lights; the greater light 2 to rule the day, and 4 the lesser light to rule the night; he made, the stars also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the carth.

18 And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

ing were the fourth day.

20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the <sup>3</sup>moving creature that hath 4 life, and 5 fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.

21 And 'God created great whales. and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

28 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creep-eth upon the earth after his kind:

and God saw that it was good.

26 ¶ And God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; amale and female created he them.

6 But 6 there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And the LORD God formed man 7 of the A dust of the ground, and breathed into his knostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

8 7 And the Lord God planted "a garden "eastward in Eden; and m ch. 13, 10, Is. 51, 3, Erek. 28, there he put the man whom he had formed.

9 And out of the ground made the Lord God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; "the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

10 And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

11 The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold;

12 And the gold of that land is good: "there is bdellium and the 14 And the name of the third river is "Hiddekel! that is it which goeth stoward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

15 And the LORD God took 4the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it. 16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden 5 thou mayest freely eat:

garden chou mayest freety est:
17 'But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, 'thou shalt not est thereof 's thou shalt surely die.
18 'And the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be I will make him an help alone; 'I will meet for him.

19 d And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto 8 Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.

20 And Adam 9 gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.

21 And the LORD God caused a I deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof;

22 And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, 2 made he a woman, and 9 brought her unto the man.

23 And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called 8 Woman, because she was taken out of Man.

24 Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife; and they shall be one flesh.

5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then 'your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was 2 pleasant to the eves, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, fand did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; fand he did eat.

7 And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves 8 aprons.

8 And they heard * the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the 4 cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God amongst the trees of the garden.

9 And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him. Where art thou?

10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, "and I was afraid, because thogarden, "and I was sarring recause I was naked; and I hid myself. 11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?

12 And the man said, "The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did cat.

18 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, "The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

14 And the Lorp God said punto

the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life:

15 And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

16 Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply the sorrow and thy conception; "in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire "shall be to thy husband, and he shall "rule over thee.

17 And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: "cursed is the ground for thy sake; "in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life;
18 Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and /thou shalt eat the herb of the field;

19 In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: *for dust thou art, and tunto dust shalt thou return.

20 And Adam called his wife's name <sup>28</sup> Eve; because she was the mother of all living.

did the LORD God make coats of skins, and clothed them.

22 ¶ And the Lord God said, *Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever:

28 Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, "to till the ground from whence he was taken.

24 So he drove out the man: and he placed "at the east of the garden of Eden "Cherubims, and a faming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life. CHAPTER IV.

2 And she again bare his brother 5Abel. And Abel was 6a keeper of sheep. but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 And 7 in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD.

4 And Abel, he also brought of 'the firstlings of his 8 flock and of the fat thereof. And the LORD had drespect unto Abel and to his offering ? 5 But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell. 6 And the Lord said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7 If thou doest well, shalt thou not 9 be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And 2un-to thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

8 And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.

9 ¶ And the Lorp said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my

CHAPTER VI.

1 The wickedness of the world, which provoked God's wrath, and caused the flood. 8 Noah fludeth grace. 14 The order, form, and end of the ark.

AND it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

2 That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they atook them wives of all which they chose.

3 And the Lord said, "My spirit shall not always strive with man, for shain not always serve with man, "for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years. 4 There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

5 ¶ And Gop saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that tevery 'imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil 5 continually.

6 And /it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart. 7 And the Lord said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 ¶ These are the generations of Noah: 'Noah was a just man and' 'perfect in his generations, and Noah 'walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sons,

Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
11 The earth also was corrupt "before God, and the earth was "filled with violence.

12 And God 'looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Noah, "The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; "and, behold, I will destroy them "with the earth.

14 ¶ Make thee an ask of gopher wood; 2 rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of? The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 'And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all fiesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant; and 'thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all ficeh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

12 And God said, This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

18 I do set 'my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth. 14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud: 15 And I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all ficsh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh. 16 And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember "the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 And God said unto Noah, This is the token of the covenant, which I have established between me and all fiesh that is upon the earth.

18 ¶ And the sons of Noah, that went forth of the ark, were Shem, and Ham, and Japheth: "and Ham is the father of 2 Canaan.

19 These are the three sons of Noah: 'and of them was the whole earth overspread.

20 And Noah began to be an husbandman, and he planted a vineyard:

21 And he drank of the wine, band was drunken; and he was uncovered within his tent.

22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without.

23 And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness

24 And Noah awoke from his wine and knew what his younger son had done unto him.

25 And he said, d Cursed be Canaan; 'a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren. 26 And he said, /Blessed be the LORD God of Shem; and Canaan shall be 8 his servant. 27 God shall tenlarge Japheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem;

8 And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house; /and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat.

4 ¶ But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter:

5 And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? A bring them out unto us, that we may know them.

11 And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 T And the men said unto Lot. Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place:
18 For we will destroy this place, because the 'cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it. 14 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, which married his daughters, and said, "Up, get you out of this place; for the Loap will destroy this city. "But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons in law. 15 7 And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying,

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh, not so, my Lord:

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die:

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.

21 And he said unto him, See, 'I have accepted 2 thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for 71 cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the city was called <sup>3</sup> Zoar. 23 ¶ The sun was <sup>4</sup> risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar. 24 Then the LORD rained upon

Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven;

25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

26 ¶ But his wife looked back from 16 7 And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD is in 'this place: and I knew it not.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

18 And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and feet it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it.

12 And he said, Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before thee.

18 And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are ten-der, and the flocks and herds with young are with me; and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.

14 Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant: and I will lead on softly, 5 according as the cattle that gooth before me and the children be able to endure, until 1 come unto my lord 'unto Scir.

16 ¶ So Esau returned that day on his way unto Scir.

17 And Jacob journeyed to "Succoth, and built him an house, and made booths for his cattle: there-fore the name of the place is called 8 Succoth.

18 ¶ And Jacob came to Shalem. a city of 9 P Shechem, which is in the land of Canaun, when he came from Padan-aram; and pitched his tent before the city.

19 And the bought a parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of 2Hamor, Shechem's father, for an hundred spieces of money.

20 And he erected there an altar, and called it El-elohe-Israel.

AND aDinah the daughter of Lo-And, which she bare unto Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land.

2 And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivito, prince of the country, saw her, he took her, and lay with her, and 2 defiled her.

8 And his soul clave unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spake skindly unto the damsel.

4 And Shechem spake unto his father Hamor, saying, Get me this damsel to wife.

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Jacob I held his peace until they were come.

6 ¶ And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they were very wroth, because he had wrought folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter; which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

9 And make ye marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us. and take our daughters unto you.

10 And ye shall dwell with us: and the land shall be before you; dwell and trade ye therein, and get you possessions therein.

11 And Sheehem said unto her father and unto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give. 12 Ask me never so much "dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.

13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father "deceitfully, and said, because he had defiled Dinah their sister:

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised: for "that were a reproach unto us:

15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised:

16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

18 And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamor's son.

19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter: and he was more honourable than all the house of his father.

27 The children of Ezer are these; Bilhan, and Zaavan, and Akan.

28 The children of Dishan are these: Uz, and Aran.

These are the dukes that came of the Horites; duke Lotan, duke Shobal, duke Zibeon, duke Anah, 80 Duke Dishon, duke Ezer, duke Dishan: these are the dukes that came of Hori, among their dukes in the land of Seir.

81 ¶ And p these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom, before there reigned any king over the children of Israel.

32 And Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom: and the name of his city was Dinhabah,

88 And Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

84 And Jobab died, and Husham of the land of Temani reigned in his stead.

85 And Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who smote Midlan in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Avith.

36 And Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead. 87 And Samlah died, and Saul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead.

88 And Saul died, and Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.

89 And Baal-hanan the son of Achbor died, and Hadar reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Pau; and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

40 And these are the names of "the dukes that came of Esau, according to their families, after their places, by their names; duke Timnah, duke 3 Alvah, duke Jetheth,

AND Joseph dwalk in the land.

AND Jacob dwelt in the land stranger, in the land of Canaan.

2 These are the generations of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and the lad was with the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives: and Joseph brought unto his father b their evil report.

3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age: and he made him a coat of many a colours.

4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they shated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

5 ¶ And Joseph dreamed a dream and he told it his brethren; and they hated him yet the more.
6 And he said unto them,

Hear. pray you, this dream which I

1 pray you, this the limit is have dreamed:
7 For, *behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obcisance to my sheaf.

8 And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

9 ¶ And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, I the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me.

10 And he told it to his father, and to his brethren; and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and "thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth?

11 And his brethren envied him; but his father 'observed the saying. 12 ¶ And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem. 13 And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shechem? come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, Here am I. 14 And he said to him, Go, I pray thee, 2 see whether it he well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of *Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

15 7 And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou?

16 And he said, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in "Dothan.

CHAPTER I. 1 The children of Israel, after Joseph's death, do multiply. 8 The more they are oppressed by a seic king, the more they multiply. 15 The godliness of the midwives, in soving the men children alive. 22 Pharach commandeth the male children to be cast into the river.

Now athese are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt; every man and his household came with Jacob.

2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah, 3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin, 4 Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher. 5 And all the souls that came out of the 2 loins of Jacob were 2 seventy souls: for Joseph was in Egypt already. 6 And Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation.

7 ¶ And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them.

8 Now there 'arose up a new king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph.
9 And he said unto his people, Bohold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we: 10 Come on, let us deal wisely with them; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them up out of the land.

11 Therefore they did set over them taskmasters 'to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh treasure cities, Pithom 'and Raamses

12 <sup>2</sup>But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians made the chil-and the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour:

14 And they "made their lives bitter with hard bondage, "in morter, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.

15 ¶ And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah:

16 And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools; if it be a son, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live.

17 But the midwives 'fcared God, and did not 'as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men children alive.

18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men children alive?

CHAPTER XVIII. 1 Jehro bringeth to Moses his wife and two sons. 7 Moses entertaineth him. 18 Jethro's counsel is accepted. 27 Jethro departeth.

W HEN "Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father in law, heard of all that "God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, and that the LORD had brought lawel or of Fernit Israel out of Egypt;

2 Then Jethro, Moses' father in law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back, 8 And her two sons; of which the name of the one was 2 Gershom; for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land:

4 And the name of the other was Eliezer; for the God of my father, said he, was mine help, and de-livered me from the sword of Pharach .

5 And Jethro, Moses' father in law. came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he encamped at the mount of God:

6 And he said unto Moses, I thy father in law Jethro am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her.

7 ¶ And Moses gwent out to meet his father in law, and did obeisance, and *kissed him; and they asked each other of their 4 welfare; and they came into the tent. 8 And Moses told his father in law all that the LORD had done unto Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travail that had scome upon them by the way, and how the Lord delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the Lord had done to Israel, whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Jethro said, *Blessed be the LORD, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods: " for in the thing wherein they dealt "proudly he was above them.

12 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father in law 'before God.

13 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening.

14 And when Moses' father in law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto even?

15 And Moses said unto his father in law, Because the people come unto me to enquire of God:

20 And the LORD came down upon mount Sinal, on the top of the mount: and the Lord called Moses up to the top of the mount; and Moses went up.

21 And the Lord said unto Moses, Go down, 2 charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish.
22 And let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, Psanctify themselves, lest the LORD Poreak forth upon them.

23 And Moses said unto the LORD. The people cannot come up to mount Sinal: for thou chargedst us, saying, 'Set bounds about the mount, and sanctify it.

24 And the Lorp said unto him. Away, get thee down, and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto the Lorp, lest he break forth upon them.

25 So Moses went down unto the people, and spake unto them.

NOW these are the judgments which thou shalt set before them.

2 b If thou buy an Hebrew servant, six years he shall serve: and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing.

3 If he came in 2 by himself, he shall go out by himself: if he were married, then his wife shall go out

4 If his master have given him a wife, and she have born him sons or wife, and she have born him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.

5 'And if the servant's shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free:
6 Then his master shall bring him unto the 'judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the door post; and his master shall 'bore his ear through with an aul: ch. 12, 12, 4 22, 6, 28, bore his ear through with an aul; and he shall serve him for ever.

8 If she splease not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then # ver. 2, 3, 4 Heb. be evil in the eyes of, &c. shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her.

9 And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.

10 If he take him another wife: her food, her raiment, hand her duty of marriage, shall he not diminish.

11 And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money.

12 ¶ 'He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death.

13 And kif a man lie not in wait. but God 'deliver him into his hand; then "I will appoint thee a place whither he shall fice. 14 But if a man come "presumptu-ously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; "thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.

15 ¶ And he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

16 ¶ And phe that stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

17 ¶ And 'he that 2 curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

18 7 And if men strive together, and one smite 3 another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keepeth his bed:

19 If he rise again, and walk a-broad tupon his staff, then shall he that smote him be quit: only he shall pay for 4 the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.

20 ¶ And if a man smite his scrvant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand: he shall be surely 5 punished. 21 Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished:

for "he is his money. 22 ¶ If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mis-chief follow: he shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall "pay as the judges determine.

23 And if any mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life, 24 'Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, 25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 ¶ And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish; he shall let him go free for his cyc's sake. 27 And if he smite out his manservant's tooth, or his maidservant's tooth; he shall let him go free for his tooth's sake.

28 7 If an ox gore a man or a woman, that they die: then "the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be quit. 29 But if the ox were wont to push with his horn in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned. and his owner also shall be put to death. 30 If there be laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give for the ransom of his life whatsoever is laid upon him.

31: Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done unto him.

32 If the ox shall push a manservant or a maidservant; he shall give unto their master b thirty shekels of silver, and the cox shall be stoned.

33 ¶ And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein;

34 The owner of the pit shall make it good, and give money unto the owner

4 of charitableness. 10 of the year of vest. 12 of the subsult. 13 of delutry.
14 of the three feasts. 18 of the blood and the fat of the sacrifice. 20 An Angel is promised, with a blessing, if they obey him.

THOU shalt not raise a false report; put not thine hand with the wicked to be an bunrighteous witness

2 Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil; dneither shalt thou speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest judgment:

3 ¶ Neither shalt thou countenance

a poor man in his cause.

4 ¶ If thou meet thine enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again.

5 / If thou see the ass of him that hatcth thee lying under his burden, and wouldest forbear to help him, thou shalt surely help with him.

6 Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy poor in his cause.

7 * Keep thee far from a false matter; 'and the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for * I will not justify the wicked.

8 ¶ And thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth 5the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

9 ¶ Also "thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the 6 heart of a stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

10 And "six years thou shalt sow thy land, and shalt gather in the

Deut. 1, 17, Ps. 72, 2, fruits thereof:

11 But the seventh year thou shalt let it rest and lie still: that the poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thy

7 oliveyard. 12 ° Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed. 13 And in all things that I have said unto you p be circumspect; and make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

14 ¶ Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me in the year. 21. Bedes, 5.8. 15 Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread: (thou shalt eat unleavened broad seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time ap-pointed of the month Abli; for in it thou camest out from Egypt: and none shall appear before me empty:)

16 "And the feast of harvest, the firstfruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in the field: and "the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field.

17 Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord

18 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of my 2 sacrifice remain until the morning.

19 "The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's

20 ¶ Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared.

21 Beware of him, and obey his voice, d provoke him not; for he will 'not pardon your transgressions: for 22 But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then "I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and <sup>3</sup> an adversary unto thine adversaries.

23 * For mine Angel shall go before thee, and bring thee in unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites: and I will cut them off.

24 Thou shalt not *bow down to their gods, nor serve them, i nor do after their works: "but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images.

25 And ye shall "serve the Lord your God, and "he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and "I will take sickness away from the midst of thec.

26 ¶ There shall nothing east their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will r fulfil.

27 I will send 'my fear before thee, and will tdestroy all the people to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thine enemies turn their backs unto thec.

28 And "I will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hi-vite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before thee.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Moses is called up into the mountain. 3 The people promise obedience. 4 Moses buildeth an altar, and twelve pillars. 6 He sprinkleth the blood of the convenant. 9 The glory of God appeareth. 14 Auron and Hur have the churge of the people. 15 Moses worth into the mountain, where he continuel forty days and forty nights.

AND he said unto Moses, Come up unto the Lord, thou, and Aaron, "Nadab, and Abihu, band seventy of the olders of Israel; and worship ye afar off.

2 And Moses calone shall come near the Lord: but they shall not come nigh; neither shall the people go up with him.

3 ¶ And Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the judgments; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, "All the words which the LORD hath said will we do.

4 And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve 'pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto the Lore.

6 And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basons; and half of the blood he sprinkled on 4 Heb. 9, 19, the altar.

7 And he atook the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, 'All that the Lorp hath said will we do. and be obedient.

8 And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold *the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you oncerning all these words.

9 Then went up Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel:

10 And they "saw the God of Israel: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a "sapphire stone, and as it were the 'body of heaven in his clearness.

11 And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he plaid not his hand: also they saw God, and did eat and drink

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses. Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee 'tables of stone, and a law, and command-ments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them.

13 And Moses rose up, and "his minister Joshua: and Moses "went up into the mount of God.

14 And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and Hur are with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

15 And Moses went up into the mount, and va cloud covered the mount.

16 And the glory of the Lorn abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

17 And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like adevouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel.

18 And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and Moses was in the mount forty days and forty nights.

22 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward thou shalt make six boards.

23 And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

24 And they shall be 2 coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it unto one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two comers.

25 And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

26 ¶ And thou shalt make bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, 27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the two sides westward.

28 And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end

29 And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and thou shalt overlay the bars with gold.

30 And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle daccording to the fashion thereof which was shewed thee in the mount.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen of cunning work: with cherubins shall it be made:

32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim wood overlaid with gold: their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver.

33 ¶ And thou shalt hang up the vail under the taches, that thou mayest bring in thither within the vail /the ark of the testimony: and the vail shall divide unto you between 'the holy place and the most holy.

34 And *thou shalt put the mercy seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place.

35 And 'thou shalt set the table without the vail, and *the candle-stick over against the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south: and thou shalt put the table on the north side.

36 And thou shalt make an hanging for the door of the tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework.

37 And thou shalt make for the hanging "five pillars of shittim record, and overlay them with gold, and their hooks shall be of gold: and thou shalt cast five sockets of brass for them.

AND thou shalt make "an altar bto burn incense upon: of shittim wood shalt thou make it. 2 A cubit shall be the length there-

2 A cubit shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof; foursquare shall it be: and two cubits shall be the height thereof: the horns thereof shall be of the same.

3 And thou shall overlay it with pure gold, the 3 top thereof, and the 4 sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof; and thou shalt make unto it a crown of gold round about.

4 And two golden rings shalt thou make to it under the crown of it, by the two scorners thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt thou make it; and they shall be for places for the staves to bear it withal.

5 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

of And thou shalt put it before the vail that is by the ark of the testimony, before the emercy seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with thee.

7 And Aaron shall burn thereon 6 a sweet incense every morning: when the dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it.

8 And when Aaron 78 lighteth the lamps 9 at even, he shall burn incense upon it, a perpetual incense before the Lord throughout your generations.

9 Ye shall offer no strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor ment offering; neither shall ye pour drink offering thereon.

10 And Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it once in a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonements: once in the year shall he make atonement upon it throughout your generations: it is most holy unto the Lorn.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 The people, in the absence of Moses, cause Aaron to make a calf. T God is anyered thereby, I At the interacty of Moses he is appeared. 15 Moses council down with the tables. 19 the breaked them. 20 He destroyeth the calf. 22 Aaron's excuse for himself, 25 Moses causet the idealence to be stain. 30 He prayeth for the people.

AND when the people saw that Moses adelayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, bUp, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

2 And Aaron said unto them, Break off the agolden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

3 And all the people brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron.

4 And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a grav-ing tool, after he had made it a molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

5 And when Aaron saw tt, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, To morrow is a feast to the LORD.

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

7 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, AGo, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves:

ed themselves:

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which *I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, 'These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

9 And the Lord said unto Moses, "I have seen this people, and, behold it is a stiffnecked people;

hold, it is a stiffnecked people:

10 Now therefore "let me alone. that "my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and pI will make of thee a great nation.

11 4 And Moses besought 2 the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy poo-ple, which thou hast brought forth ple, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?

12 'Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the carth? Turn from the face of the carth? Turn from the face wath, and 'repent from the face of the cath. Tain from thy ficrce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people. 13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, "I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

14 And the Lord repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

15 ¶ And Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written,

16 And the tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables.

10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent door.

11 And the Lord spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but "his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, depart-ed not out of the tabernacle.

12 ¶ And Moses said unto the Lord. See, "thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, "I know thee by name, and thou hast also

CHAPTER XXXIV.

1 The tables are reneved. 5 The name of the LOBI proclaimed. 8 Moses intreateth God to go with them. 10 God maketh a comenut with them, repeating certain duties of the first table. 28 Moses after forty days in the mount cometh down with the tables. 29 Hts face shineth, and he covereth it with a vall.

AND the Lord said unto Moses,
"Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first: and I will write upon these tables the words that were in the first tables, which thou brakest.

2 And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning unto mount Sinai, and present thyself there to me 'in the top of the mount.

8 And no man shall dcome up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.

4 ¶ And he hewed two tables of stone like unto the first; and Moses rose up carly in the morning, and went up unto mount Sinai, as the Lorp had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone.

5 And the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD.

6 And the Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord, The Lord food, merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness and *truth.

7 Keeping mercy for thousands, * forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation.

8 And Moses made haste, and " bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped.

9 And he said. If now I have found grace in thy sight, O Lord, "let my Lord, I pray thee, go among us; for it is a stiffnecked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for p thine inheritance.

10 ¶ And he said, Behold, ¶ I make a covenant: before all thy people I will do marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people a-mong which thou art shall see the work of the LORD: for it is 'a terrible thing that I will do with thee.

11 Observe thou that which I command thee this day: behold, "I drive out before thee the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite.

12 Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for va snare in the midst of thee:

13 But ye shall destroy their altars, break their 2 images, and "cut down their groves:

14 For thou shalt worship b no other god: for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a djealous God:

31 ¶ And he made bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle.

33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.

34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

35 ¶ And he made "a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherubims made he it of cunning work.

36 And he made thereunto four pillars of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold: and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

37 ¶ And he made an "hanging for the tabernacle door of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, 38 And the five pillars of it with their hooks: and he overlaid their chapiters and their fillets with gold: but their five sockets were of brass.

15 And for the other side of the court gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen cu-bits; their pillars three, and their sockets three

16 All the hangings of the court round about were of fine twined linen. 17 And the sockets for the pillars were of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver; and the overlaying of their chapiters of silver; and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver.

18 And the hanging for the gate of the court was needlework, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, answerable to the hangings of the court.

19 And their pillars were four, and their sockets of brass four; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their chapiters and their fillets of silver. 20 And all the dpins of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, were of brass. 21 This is the sum of the tabernacle, even of the tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest.

22 And Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the Lord commanded Moses.

23 And with him was Aholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a cunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen. 24 All the gold that was occupied for the work in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the offering, was twenty and nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after hthe shekel of the sanctuary.

25 And the silver of them that were numbered of the congregation was seven hundred and threescore and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

26 'A bekah for 2 every man, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for *six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men.

27 And of the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the vall; an hundred sockets of the hun-dred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their chapiters, and filleted them.

29 And the brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shekels.

30 And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the brasen altar, and the brasen grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar, 31 And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets of the court gate, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

1 The burnt afferings. 3 Of the herd, 10 of the flowls.

AND the LORD called unto Moses, and spake unto him bout of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, if any man of you bring an offering unto the Lorn, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd, and of the flock.

3 If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lord.

4 'And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be facepted for him "to make atonement for him.

5 And he shall kill the *bullock before the Lorn: and the priests, Arron's sons, shall bring the blood, *and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And he shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into his pieces.

CHAPTER I. 1 God commandeth Moses to number the people. 5 The princes of the tribes. 17 The number of every lribe. 47 The Levites are exempted for the service of the Lord.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinal, bin the tabernacle of the congregation, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying, 2 Take ye the sum of all the con-gregation of the children of Israel, after their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male by their polls:

3 From twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel: thou and Aaron shall number them by their armies. 4 And with you there shall be a man of every tribe; every one head of the house of his fathers.

5 ¶ And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you: of the tribe of Reuben; Elizur the son of Shedeur.

6 Of Simcon; Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

7 Of Judah; Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

8 Of Issachar; Nethaneel the son of Zuar. 9 Of Zebulun; Eliab the son of Helon. 10 Of the children of Joseph: of Ephraim; Elishama the son of Ammihud: of Manasseh; Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. 11 Of Benjamin: Abidan the son of Gideoni

12 Of Dan; Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

13 Of Asher: Pagiel the son of Ocran. 14 Of Gad; Eliasaph the son of d Deuel

15 Of Naphtali; Ahira the son of Enan.

16 These were the renowned of the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, heads of thousands in

17 T And Moses and Aaron took these men which are expressed by their names:

31 All they that were numbered in the camp of Dan were an hundred thousand and fifty and seven thou-sand and six hundred. *They shall go hindmost with their standards.

32 ¶ These are those which were numbered of the children of Israel by the house of their fathers: 'all those that were numbered of the camps throughout their hosts were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

33 But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel; as the Lord commanded Moses.

34 And the children of Israel did or and the enhance of Israel did according to all that the Lord com-manded Moses: 'so they pitched by their standards, and so they set forward, every one after their fami-lies, according to the house of their fathers.

married: for "he had "married an Ethiopian woman.

2 And they said, Hath the Lord indeed spoken only by Moses? bhath he not spoken also by us? And the Lord heard it.

3 (Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.)

4 dAnd the LORD spake suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out.

5 And the Lord came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth.

6 And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the Lord will make myself known unto him fin a vision, and will speak unto him gin a dream.

7 My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all mine house.

1 The people murmur at the users. 6 Joshua and Culch labour to still them. 11 God threatenth them. 13 Moses persuaded God, and oldinisth pardon. 26 The murmurers are deprived of entering into the land. 36 The men who raised the evil report die by a plague. 40 The people that scould invade the land against the will of God are smitten.

AND all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and "the people wept that night. 2 b And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness !

8 And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt? 4 And they said one to another, d Let us make a captain, and flet us return into Egypt. 5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of them that searched ionion were of them that searched the land, rent their clothes:

7 And they spake unto all the company of the children of Israel, saying,
The land, which we passed through to search it, is an exceeding good land. a If the Lord 'delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; *a land which floweth with milk and honey.

9 Only rebel not ye against the LORD, meither fear ye the people of the land; for "they are bread for us: their defence is departed from them, and the LORD is with us: fear them not.

10 PBut all the congregation bade stone them with stones. And 9 the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation be-fore all the children of Israel.

11 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, How long will this people provoke me? and how long will it be ere they believe me, for all the signs which I have shewed among them?

12 I will smite them with the pes-tilence, and disinherit them, and will make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they.

18 ¶ And "Moses said unto the LORD, Then the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them :)

14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: "for they have heard that thou LORD art among this people, that thou Lord art seen face to face, and that thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by day time in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 I Now if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying, 16 Because the Lord was not *able to bring this people into the land which he sware unto them, there-fore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying, 18 The Lord is a longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty, b visiting the ini-quity of the fathers upon the chil-dren unto the third and fourth generation.

19 Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people daccording unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people, from

Egypt even 2 until now. 20 And the LORD said, I have pardoned faccording to thy word:

21 But as truly as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lorn. 22 h Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice;

23 *3 Surely they shall not see the land which I sware unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Balaam, leaving divinations, prophesieth the happiness of Israel. 10 Balak in anger dis-misseth him. 15 He prophesieth of the Star of Jacob, and the destruction of some nations.

AND when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he went not, as at "other times, 2 to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness. his face toward the wilderness.

2 And Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel babding in his tents according to their tribes; and 'the Spirit of God came upon him.

8 And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man by whose eyes are open hath said:

CHAPTER XXX. 1 Vows are not to be broken. 3 The exception of a maid's vow. 6 Of a wife's. 9 Of a widow's, or her that is divorced.

AND Moses spake unto athe heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded. 2 b If a man vow a vow unto the LORD, or swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he shall not break his word, he shall do accord-ing to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

3 If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth; 4 And her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father shall hold his peace at her: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul shall stand.

5 But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth; not any of her vows, or of her bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand: and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

6 And if she had at all an husband, when 4she vowed, or uttered ought out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul;

7 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he

8 But if her husband disallowed her on the day that he heard it: then he shall make her yow which she vowed, and that which she ut-tered with her lips, wherewith she bound her soul, of none effect: and the LORD shall forgive her.

 9 But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against her.

10 And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath; 11 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

12 But if her husband hath utterly made them void on the day he heard them; then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband hath made them void; and the LORD shall forgive her.

13 Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void.

14 But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day; then he establisheth all her vows, or all her bonds, which are upon her: he confirmeth them, be-cause he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them.

15 But if he shall any ways make them void after that he hath heard them; then he shall bear her ini-

16 These are the statutes, which commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her father's house.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 The Midanites are spoiled, and Balaam slain. 13 Moses is wroth with the officers, for saving the women alive. 19 How the soldiers, with their captives and spoil, are to be pur-fied. 25 The proportion whereby the prey is to be divided. 48 The voluntary oblation unto the treasury of the Lord.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 "Avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites: afterward shalt thou be gathered unto thy people.

3 And Moses spake unto the people, saving, Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the LORD of Midian.

4 2 Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war.

5 So there were delivered out of the every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

6 And Moses sent them to the war. Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments, and "the trumpets to blow in his hand.

7 And they warred against the Midianites, as the Lord command-ed Moses; and 4 they slew all the males

Maies. 8 And they slew the kings of Midian, beside the rest of them that were slain; namely, fErl, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian: Balaam also the son of Beor they slew with the sword.

9 And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods. 10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their goodly castles, with fire. 11 And *they took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of

12 And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by Jordan near Jericho.

13 ¶ And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them without the camp.

14 And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the <sup>2</sup>battle.

15 And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved 'all the women alive? 16 Behold, *these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the Lord in the matter of Peor, and "there was a plague among the congregation of the Lord.

17 Now therefore "kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with 8him. 18 But all the women children, that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

19 And do ye abide without the camp seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and pwhosoever hath touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day.

20 And purify all your raiment, and all 4that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things

CHAPTER XXXVI.

1 The inconvenience of the inheritance of daugh-ters B is remedied by marrying in their own tribes, 7 lest the inheritance should be removed from the tribe. 10 The daughtery of Zelophe-had marry their father's brothers' sons.

AND the chief fathers of the families of the "children of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near, and spake be-fore Moses, and before the princes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel:

2 And they said, 5 The Lord commanded my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel: and 'my lord was commanded by the Lord to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother unto his daughters.

a And if they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

4 And when 4 the jubile of the children of Israel shall be, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe where-unto they are received: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 And Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of the Lord, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph hath said well.

6 This is the thing which the Lord doth command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them smarry to whom they think best; Jonly to the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry.

7 So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel remove from tribe to tribe: for every one of the children of Israel shall <sup>49</sup>keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And every daughter, that possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of sessen an innertance in any trice of the children of Israel, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enjoy every man the in-heritance of his fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance,

10 Even as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad:

11 'For Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hog-lah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were mar-ried unto their father's brothers' sons :

12 And they were married 5 into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13 These are the commandments and the judgments, which the Lord commanded by the hand of Mo-ses unto the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

CHAPTER I.

1 Moses' speech in the end of the fortieth year, briefly rehearsing the story 6 of God's pro-mise, 13 of giving them officers, 19 of sending the spies to search the land, 34 of God's anger for their incredulity, 41 and disobedience.

THESE be the words which Moses I spake unto all Israel on this side Jordan in the wilderness, in the plain over against 2the Red sea, between Paran, and Tophel, and Lahan, and Hazeroth, and Dizahab.

2 (There are eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of mount Seir 2unto Kadesh-barnea.)

8 And it came to pass on the for-tieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spake unto the children of Israel, according unto all that the Lord had given him in commandment unto them;

4 dAfter he had slain Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt at Astaroth in Edrei:

5 On this side Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying,

6 The Lord our God spake unto us fin Horeb, saying, Ye have dwelt long enough in this mount: 7 Turn you, and take your journey, and go to the mount of the Amorites, and unto <sup>3</sup>all the places nigh thereunto, in the plain, in the hills, and in the vale, and in the south, and by the sea side, to the land of the Canaanites, and unto Lebanon, unto the great river, the river Euphrates

8 Behold, I have 4 set the land before you: go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, A Gen. 12. 7. & 15. 18. & 17. 7, 8. & 26. 4. & 28. 13. to give unto them and to their seed after them.

9 ¶ And ¶ spake unto you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone:

10 The Lord your God hath multiplied you, and, behold, bye are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude.

11 (The LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, "as he hath promised you!)

13 ° 5 Take you wise men, and understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you.

14 And ye answered me, and said,

14 And ye answered me, and saur, The thing which thou hast spoken is good for us to do. 15 So 1 took the chief of your tribes, wise men, and known, pand a made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers a-captains over tens, and officers a-mong your tribes.

16 And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethern, and 'judge rightcously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him. 17 'Ye shall not 3 respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God's: and the cause that is too hard for you, "bring it unto me, and I will hear it.

18 And I commanded you at that time all the things which ye should do. 19 ¶ And when we departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and terrible wilderness, which ye saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the Lord our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-barnea, 20 And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the Lord our God doth give unto us.

21 Behold, the Lorn thy God hath set the land before thee: go up and possess it, as the Lorn God of thy fathers hath said unto thee; "fear not, neither be discouraged.

22 ¶ And ye came near unto me every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come.

23 And the saying pleased me well: and "I took twelve men of you, one of a tribe:

24 And bthey turned and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of Eshcol, and searched it out.

25 And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, 'It is a good land which the Lord our God doth word again, and said, "It is a good and which the Lord our God doth lyive us.

rehearseth the story

for I am not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies, 48 So I spake unto you; and ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD. and 2d went presumptuously up into the hill.

44 And the Amorites, which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and destroyed you in Seir, even unto Hormah

45 And ve returned and wept before the Lord: but the Lord would not hearken to your voice, nor give ear unto you.

46 /So ve abode in Kadesh many days, according unto the days that ye abode there.

CHAPTER VIII. An exhortation to obedience in regard of God's dealing with them.

ΛLL the commandments which I command thee this day "shall ye observe to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers.

2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God bled thee these forty years in the wilder-ness, to humble thee, and "to prove thee, "to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no.

3 And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not. neither did thy fathers know; that the might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord doth man live.

4 Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years.

5 Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the Lorp thy God chasteneth thee.

6 Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, *to walk in his ways, and to fear him.

7 For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land, la land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

8 A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land 2 of oil olive, and honey;

9 A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land "whose stones are iron, and out of whose blue help and the shall all the whose hills thou mayest dig brass.

10 "When thou hast caten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God for the good land which he hath given thee.

11 Beware that thou forget not the LORD thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day:

12 Lest when thou hast caten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein ;

13 And when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied;

14 PThen thine heart be lifted up, and thou forget the Lord thy God, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage; 15 Who 'led thee through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where there was no water; who brought thee forth water out of the rock of filmt;

16 Who fed thee in the wilderness

several rebellions of Israel.

9 When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then 'I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water:

10 'And the Lorp delivered unto me two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words, which the LORD spake with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire 'in the day of the assembly. 11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that stone, even the tables of the covenant.

12 And the LORD said unto me, "Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are "quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image.

13 Furthermore the Lord spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people:

14 a Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they.

15 d So I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands,

16 And /I looked, and, behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your God, and had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the Lord had commanded you.

17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18 And I fell down before the Lord. as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

19 h For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith the Lord was wroth against you to destroy you. But the Lord hearkened unto me at that time also.

20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time.

21 And *I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount.

CHAPTER IX.

Moses dissuadeth them from the opinion of their own righteousness, by rehearsing their several rebellions.

HEAR, O Israel: Thou art to a pass over Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations b greater and mightier than thyself, cities great and fenced up to heaven,

2 A people great and tall. the children of the Anakims, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak!

3 Understand therefore this day, that the Lord thy God is he which goeth over before thee; as a consuming fire he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: Aso shalt thou drive them out. and destroy them quickly, as the Lorp hath said unto thee.

4 'Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the Lord thy God hath east them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness the Lord hath brought me in to possess this land: but for the k Gen. 15, 16. wickedness of these nations the Lord doth drive them out from before thee. 5 Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform "the word which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righte-ousness; for thou art "a stiffnecked

7 ¶ Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the Lord thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebel-lious against the Lord.

8 Also pin Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you.

9 If thou shalt keep all these y it thou shalt keep all these commandments to do them, which I command thee this day, to love the Lord thy God, and to walk ever in his ways; / then shalt thou add three cities more for thee, beside these three:

10 That innocent blood be not shed in thy land, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and so blood be upon thee.

11 ¶ But s if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him mortally that he die, and fleeth into one of these cities:

12 Then the elders of his city shall and fetch him thence, and de-liver him into the hand of the a-venger of blood, that he may die.

13 A Thine eye shall not pity him, but thou shalt put away the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with thee.

14 ¶ *Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour's landmark, which they of old time have set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land that the Lord thy God giveth

7 ¶ And Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, "Be strong and of a good courage: for thou must go with this people unto the land which the Lord hath sworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it. 8 And the Lord, he it is that doth go before thee; he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed.

9 ¶ And Moses wrote this law, and delivered it unto the priests the sons of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and unto all the elders of Israel. 10 And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of every seven years, in the solemnity of the 'year of release, 'in the feast of tabernacles, 11 When all Israel is come to "anpear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose, "thou shalt read this law before all Israel in their hearing.

12 Gather the people together, men, and women, and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the Long your God, and observe to do all the words of this law:

13 And that their children, which have not known any thing, a may hear, and learn to fear the Lord your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

18 And "I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evils which they shall have wrought in that they they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

19 Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be 'a witness for me against the children of Israel.

20 For when I shall have brought them into the land which I sware them into the land which I sware unto their fathers, that floweth with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxen fat; 4 then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break them, and provoke me, and break my covenant.

21 And it shall come to pass, "when many evils and troubles are befallen them, that this song shall testify sa-gainst them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for "I know their imagination "which they 'go about, even now, before I have brought them into the land which I sware.

CHAPTER XXXII.

1 Moses' song, which setteth forth God's mercy and vengeance. 48 He exhorteth them to set their hearts upon it. 48 God sendeth him up to mount Nobo, to see the land, and die.

OIVE "ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

2 bMy doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass:

8 Because I will publish the name of the Lord: dascribe ye greatness unto our God.

4 He is the Rock his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment:

quity, just and right is he.
52 They have corrupted themselves,
3 their spot is not the spot of his children: they are a perverse and crookded generation.

6 Do ye thus "requite the Lord, O foolish people and unwise? is not he "thy father that hath bought thee? hath he not P made thee, and established thee? 7 ¶ Remember the days of old, consider the years of 4 many generations: 9 ask thy father, and he will shew thee: thy elders, and they will tell thee.

8 When the Most High 'divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel.

9 For the Lord's portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

10 He found him "in a desert land. and in the waste howling wilderness; he eled him about, he "instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye.

11 As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings:

12 So the LORD alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him.

13 He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck bhoney out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock :

14 Butter of kine, and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat; and thou didst drink the pure blood of the grape. 15 ¶ But Jeshurun waxed fat, and

7 Only be thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law, *which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest 3 prosper whithersoever thou goest.
8 ** This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but "thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt 4 have good success.

9 'Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; p be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, 11 Pass through the host, and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for within three days ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the Lorp your God giveth you to possess it.

12 ¶ And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, spake Joshus, saying, 13 Remember 'the word which Mo-ses the servant of the LORD com-ses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying The LORD your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land.

14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan; but ye shall pass before your brethren <sup>2</sup>armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them;

15 Until the Lord have given your brethren rest, as he hath given you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God giveth them: then ye shall return unto the land of your possession, and enjoy it, which Moses the Lord's servant gave you on this side Jordan toward the sunrising.

16 ¶ And they answered Joshua, saying, All that thou commandest us we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest us, we will go.

17 According as we hearkened unto Moses in all things, so will we heark-en unto thee: only the LORD thy God be with thee, as he was with Moses

18 Whosoever he be that doth rebel against thy commandment, and will not hearken unto thy words in all that thou commandest him, he shall be put to death: only be strong and of a good courage.

CHAPTER II. 1 Rahab receiveth and concealeth the two spies sent from Shittim. 8 The covenant between her and them. 23 Their return and relation.

AND Joshua the son of Nun *sent out of Shittim two men to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, even Jericho. And they went, and came into an harlot's house, named Rahab, and 4 lodged there.

2 And 4 it was told the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men in hither to night of the children of Israel to search out the country. 3 And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee, which are entered into thine house: for they be come to search out all the country. 4 'And the woman took the two men, and hid them, and said thus, There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they were:

sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall ascend up every man straight before him.

6 ¶ And Joshus the son of Nun called the priests, and said unto them, Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the Lord.

7 And he said unto the people, Pass on, and compass the city, and let him that is armed pass on before

as a And it came to pass, when Joshua had spoken unto the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before the Lorn, and blew with the trumpets: and the ark of the covenant of the Lorn followed them.

9 ¶ And the armed men went before the priests that blew with the trumthe ark, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

10 And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, nor timake any noise with your voice, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall ye shout.

11 So the ark of the LORD compassed the city, going about it once: and they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp.

12 I And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the Lord.

13 And seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went on continually, and blew with the trumpets: and the armed men went before them; but the rereward came after the ark of the Lorg, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

14 And the second day they compassed the city once, and returned passed the city once, and returned into the camp: so they did six days. 15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times.

16 And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the Lord hath given you the city.

17 ¶ And the city shall be 5 accursed, even it, and all that are therein, to the Lorn: only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent,

18 And ye, in any wise keep yourselves from the accursed thing, lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse. and trouble it.

19 But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are <sup>2</sup> consecrated unto the Lord: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD.

20 So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that * the wall fell down * flat.

snout, that the wall fell down state, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.

21 And they 'lutterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword.

22 But Joshua had said unto the two men that had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, "as ye sware unto her.

23 And the young men that were sples went in, and brought out Rahab, "and her father, and her mother, and her brothren, and all that she had; and they brought out all her 4kindred, and left them without the camp of Israel.

24 And they burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein: "only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the Lord.

25 And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's house-hold, and all that she had; and p she dwelleth in Israel even unto this day; because she hid the messen-gers, which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

26 ¶ And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the LORD, that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.
27 'So the Lord was with Joshua; and his fame was noised throughout all the country.

1 The nine tribes and a half are to have their inheritance by lot. 6 Caleb by privilege ob-taineth Hebron.

AND these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, "which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fa-thers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them.

2 bBy lot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe.

8 For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and an half tribe on the other side Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For dthe children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance.

5 'As the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did. and they divided the land.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 The lot of Manasch. 7 His coast. 12 The Canaanties not driven out. 14 The children of Joseph obtain another lot.

THERE was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh; for he was the "firstborn of Joseph; to wit, for Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead: because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan.

2 There was also a lot for 4 the 2 There was also a tot for enter rest of the children of Manasseh by their families; "for the children of Ablezer, and for the children of As-riel, and for the children of As-riel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida: these were the male children of Manassch the son of Joseph by their families.

3 ¶ But Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Maclir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4 And they came near before 'Elcazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The Lord commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren. Therefore according to the commandment of the Lord he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side Jordan:

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons: and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilcad.

7 ¶ And the coast of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethah, that lieth before Shechem; and the border went along on the right hand unto the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

8 Now Manasseh had the land of Tappuah: but "Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the m ch. 10. 8. children of Ephraim;

9 And the coast descended "unto the "river Kanah, southward of the river: "these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: the coast of Manasseh also was on the north side of the river, and the outgoings of it were at the sea:

10 Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea is his horder; and they met together in Asher on the north, and in Issachar on the east.

11 PAnd Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher Both-shean and her towns, and Ibleam and her towns. and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and her towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns, even three countries.

12 Yet "the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

18 Yet it came to pass, when the children of Israel were waxen strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute; but did not utterly drive them out.

14 'And the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but "one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am "a great people, foresmuch as the Lord the burged we believe the lorger of the lo hath blessed me hitherto?

15 And Joshua answered them, If thou be a great people, then get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the 2 giants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.

16 And the children of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both they who are of Beth-shean and her towns, and they who are of the valley of Jezreel.

17 And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power: thou shalt not have one lot only 18 But the mountain shall be thine: for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it down: and the outgoings of it shall be thine: for thou shalt drive out the Canaanites, "though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong.

AND the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and best up the tabernacle of the congregation there. And the land was subdued before them.

2 And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, which had not yet received their inheritance.

3 And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, 'How long are ye slack to go to possess the land, which the Lord God of your fathers hath given you?

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Joshua's exhortation before his death, 3 by former benefits, 5 by promises, 11 and by threatenings.

AND it came to pass a long time after that the Lord ahad given rest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua b waxed old and stricken in age.

2 And Joshua called for all Israel, and for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said unto them, I am old and stricken in age:

8 And ye have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto all these nations because of you; for the Load your God is he that hath fought for you.

4 Behold, I have divided unto you by lot these nations that remain be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even unto the great sea 2 westward.

5 And the LORD your God, the shall expel them from before you, and drive them from out of your sight; and ye shall possess their land, as the Lord your God hath promised unto you.

6 *Be yo therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that ye turn not aside there-

7 That ye come not among these nations, these that remain among you; neither 'make mention of the you; neither 'make mention of the mame of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them: 8 3 But "cleave unto the LORD your God, as ye have done unto this day.

9 4" For the Lord hath driven out from before you great nations and strong: but as for you, no man hath been able to stand before you unto this day.

10 P One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the Lord your God, he it is that fighteth for you, as he hath promised you. 11 Take good heed therefore unto yourselves, that ye love the LORD your God.

12 Else if ye do in any wise go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even these that remain among you, and shall make marriages with them, and go in unto them, and they to you: 13 Know for a certainty that "the Lord your God will no more drive out any of these nations from before you; "but they shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given

you. 14 And, behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth: and going the way of all the carth; and ye know in all your hearts and in all your souls, that "not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof.

15 "Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all good things are come upon you, which the Lord your God promised you; so shall the Lord bring upon you ball evil things, until he have

CHAPTER XXIV.

UHAPIER XXIV.

1 Johns assembleth the tribes at Shechem. 2
2 to ref. and the state of the state

AND Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to "Shechem, and b called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God.

2 And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, a Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the flood in old time, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor:

8 And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him Isaac.

4 And I gave unto Isaac *Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto 'Esau mount Seir, to possess it; 'but Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

5 11 sent Moses also and Aaron, and <sup>m</sup> I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did among them: and afterward I brought you out.

6 And I "brought your fathers out of Egypt: and "ye came unto the sea;" and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with charlots and horsemen unto the Red sea,

7 And when they q cried unto the Lord, he put darkness between you Lorn, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and 'your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt: and ye dwelt in the wilderness "a long season."

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; "and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that ye might pos-sess their land; and I destroyed them from before you. 9 Then "Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you: 10 But I would not hearken unto Balaam; therefore he blessed you still: so I delivered you out of his hand.

11 And 'ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho: and the men of came unto sericno: and a the men of Jericho fought against you, the A-morites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgaahites, the Hivites, and the Je-busites; and I delivered them into your hand.

12 And I sent the hornet before you, which drave them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites: but Inot with thy sword, nor with thy bow.

18 And I have given you a land for which ye did not labour, and cittes which ye built not, and ye dwell in them; of the vincyards and oliveyards which ye planted not do ye eat.

14 Th Now therefore fear the LORD. and serve him in isincerity and in truth: and * put away the gods which truin; and "put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and 'in Egypt; and serve ye the Lorn, "choose you to serve the Lorn, "choose you this day whom yo will serve; whether "the gods which your fathers served that year, on the other side of the that were on the other side of the flood, or othe gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: pbut as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

16 And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods;

17 For the Lord our God, he it is that brought us up and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and which did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we passed:

18 And the LORD drave out from before us all the people, even the Amorites which dwelt in the land: therefore will we also serve the LORD: for he is our God.

19 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the Lord: for he is an 'holy God; he is 'a jealous God; 'he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

20 "If ye forsake the Lorp, and serve strange gods, "then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.

21 And the people said unto Joshua, Nay; but we will serve the LORD.

22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen you the Lore, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses.

28 Now therefore "put away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, the strange for the strange for the strange for the strange gods which are among you, the same 7.5.

with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance

26 ¶ And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up there funder an oak, that was by the sanctuary of the LORD.

27 And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness unto us; for at thath heard all the words of the Lord which he spake unto us: it shall be therefore a witness unto you, lest ye deny your God.

28 So Joshua let the people depart, in Shechem.

Now after the death of Joshua it came to pass, that the children of Israel asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them?

2 And the Lord said, b Judah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

8 And Judah said unto Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and 'I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. So Simeon went with him.

4 And Judah went up; and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they slew of them in dBezek ten thousand men.

5 And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and they slew the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

6 But Adoni-bezek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And Adoni-bezek said. Threescore and ten kings, having 2 their thumbs and their great toes cut off, 8 gathered their meat under my table: 'as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

8 Now I the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

9 ¶ And afterward the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the mountain, and in the south, and in the 2 valley.

10 And Judah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in Hebron: (now the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba:) and they slew Sheshal, and Ahiman, and Talmai.

11 'And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Debir: and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher:

12 * And Caleb said, He that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

14 " And it came to pass, when she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted from off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wilt thou? 15 And she said unto him, "Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs. 16 ¶° And the children of the Ken-ite, Moses' father in law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people.

22 And the haft also went in after the blade; and the fat closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly; and 6 the dirt came out. 23 Then Ehud went forth through the porch, and shut the doors of the parlour upon him, and locked them. 24 When he was gone out, his servants came; and when they saw that, behold, the doors of the parlour were locked, they said, Surely he covereth his feet in his summer chamber.

25 And they tarried till they were ashamed: and, behold, he opened not the doors of the parlour; therefore they took a key, and opened them: and, behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth.

26 And Ehud escaped while they tarried, and passed beyond the quarries, and escaped unto Scirath.

27 And it came to pass, when he was come, that he blew a trumpet in the mountain of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mount, and he before them.

28 And he said unto them, Follow after me: for "the LORD hath delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him, and took the fords of Jordan toward Moab, and suffered not a man to pass over.

1 Deborah and Barak deliver them from Jabin and Sisera. 18 Jael killeth Sieera.

AND "the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, when Ehud was dead.

2 And the Lord bold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in 'Hazor; the cap-tain of whose host was 'Sisera, which dwelt in 'Harosheth of the Gentiles.

3 And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD: for he had nine hundred schariots of iron; and twenty years he mightly oppressed the children of Israel.

4 TAnd Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time.

5 *And she dwelt under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Beth-el in mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

6 And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out * of Kedeshnaphtali, and said unto him, Hath not the LORD God of Israel commanded, saying, Go and draw to-ward mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the chil-dren of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

7 And I will draw unto thee to the "river Kishon Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his charlots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thine hand.

8 And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me, then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me then I will not go.

9 And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honour; for the LORD shall "sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 ¶ And Barak called <sup>e</sup>Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and he went up with ten thousand men at his feet: and Deborah went up with him.

11 Now Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of 'Hobab the father in law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 The Daniles send five men to seek out an inheritance. SAt the house of Micah they consult with Jonathan, and are encouraged in their vay. They search Laish, and bring back weres of good hope. It Six hundred men are sent to surprise it. 14 In the way they rob Micah of his priest and his conservate things. 27 They win Laish, and call it Dan. 30 They set by idelaty, wherein Jonathan inherited the priesthood.

In "those days there was no king in Israel: and in those days b the tribe of the Danites sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their coasts, 6 men of valour, from 'Zorah, and from Eshtaol, ato spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: who when they came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, they lodged there.

3 When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned in thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee hither? and what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here?

4 And he said unto them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath /hired me, and I am his priest.

5 And they said unto him, Ask counsel, we pray thee, hof God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.

6 And the priest said unto them, Go in peace: before the LORD is your way wherein ye go.

7 Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people that were therein, 'how they dwelt careless, after the manner of the Zi-donians, quiet and secure; and there was no amagistrate in the land, that might put them to shame in any thing; and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no business with any man.

8 And they came unto their bre-thren to "Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren said unto them. What say ye? 9 And they said, "Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: and are ye "still? be not slothful to go, and to enter to possess the land.

10 When ye go, ye shall come unto a people p secure, and to a large land: for God hath given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth. 11 ¶ And there went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men sappointed with weapons of war. 12 And they went up, and pitched in Kirjath-jearim, in Judah: wherefore they called that place 'Mahaneh-dan unto this day: behold, it is behind Kirjath-jearim.

13 And they passed thence unto mount Ephraim, and came unto the house of Micah.

14 ¶ "Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish, and said unto their brethren, Do ve know that "there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image? now therefore consider what ye have to do. 15 And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even unto the house of Micah, and 4 saluted him.

16 And the vsix hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.

Then said the priest unto them, What do ye? 19 And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest: is it better for thee to be a priest unto the house of one man, or that thou be a priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel?

20 And the priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people.

21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the carriage before them. 22 ¶ And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.

23 And they cried unto the children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee, 2 that thou comest with such a CHAPTER XIX.

1 A Levite goeth to Beth-lehem to fetch home his wife. 18 An old man entertaineth him at Glocah. 22 The Gibeoniles abuse his concu-bine to death. 29 He divideth her into twelve pieces, to send them to the twelve tribes.

AND it came to pass in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite sojourning on the side of mount Ephraim, who took to him a concubine out of Beth-lehemjudah.

2 And his concubine played the whore against him, and went away from him unto her father's house to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there 84 four whole months.

8 And her husband arose, and went after her, to speak aftendly unto her, and to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses; and she brought him into her father's house: and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.

4 And his father in law, the damsel's father, retained him; and he abode with him three days: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there.

8 And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart; and the damsel's father said, Comfort thine heart, I pray thee. And they tarried until afternoon, and they did eat both of them.

9 And when the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father in law, the damsel's father, said unto him, Behold, now the day 8 draweth toward evening, I pray you tarry all night; behold, the day groweth to an end, lodge here, that thine heart may be merry; and to morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go 2 home.

5 And the children of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel that came not up with the congregation unto the Lord? d'For they had made a great oath concerning him that came not up to the LORD to Mizpeh, saying, He shall surely be put to death.

6 And the children of Israel repented them for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.

7 How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing we have sworn by the Lorp that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?

8 ¶ And they said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpeh to the LORD? And, behold, there came none to the camp from Jabesh-gilead to the assembly

9 For the people were numbered, and, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead there.

10 And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, /Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children.

11 And this is the thing that ye shall do. "Ye shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman that hath lain by man.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred syoung virgins, that had known no man by lying with any male: and they brought them unto the camp to AShiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13 And the whole congregation sent some 4 to speak to the children of Benjamin 4 that were in the rock Rimmon, and to scall peaceably unto them.

14 And Benjamin came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead: and yet so they sufficed them not.

15 And the people * repented them for Benjamin, because that the Lorp had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

2 And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and 'glean cars of corn after him in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter. 3 And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her 7 hap was to light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech.

4 ¶ And, behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said unto the reapers, "The LORD be with you. And they answered him, The Lord bless thec.

5 Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose damsel is this?

of Moab: 7 And she said, I pray you, let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued even from the morning until now, that she tarried a little in the house. 8 Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither go from hence, but abide here fast by my maidens:

9 Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch thee? and when thou art athirst, go unto the vessels, and drink of that which the young men have drawn.

10 Then she ffell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldest take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger?

11 And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been shewed me, gall that thou hast done unto thy mother in law since the death of thine husband; and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come unto a people which thou knewest not heretofore.

12 h The LORD recompense thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the Lord God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to trust. 13 Then she said, 2* Lot me find favour in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken sfriendly unto thine handmaid, though I be not like unto one of thine handmaidens.

14 And Boaz said unto her, At mealtime come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and he reached her parch-ed corn, and she did eat, and "was sufficed, and left.

15 And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and 4 reproach her not:

16 And let fall also some of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave them, that she may glean them, and rebuke her not.

17 So she gleaned in the field until even, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley.

redeem it beside thee; and I am after thee. And he said, I will redeem it.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buvest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance.

6 ¶ And the kinsman said, I can-not redeem it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to thyself; for I cannot redeem it. A Dout. 25.

7 Now this was the manner in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning changing, for to confirm all things; a man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel.

8 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for thee. So he drew off his shoe.

9 7 And Boaz said unto the elders. and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chillon's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.

10 Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, and the cklers, said, We are witnesses. *The Lord make the woman that is come into thine house

13 ¶ So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife: and when he went in unto her, the Lord gave her conception, and she bare a son.

14 And 'the women said unto Naomi, Blessed be the Lord, which hath not eleft thee this day without a 5 kinsman, that his name may be famous in Israel.

15 And he shall be unto thee a restorer of thy life, and 6a nourisher of 7 thine old age: for thy daughter in law, which loveth thee, which is better to thee than seven sons, hath born him.

16 And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it.

17 And the women her neighbours gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi; and they called his name Oled: he is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

4 And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the Lord; and "the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold; only 2the stump of Dagon was left to him.

5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house, ftread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod unto this day.

6 But the hand of the Lord was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he *destroyed them, and smote them with emerods, even Ashdod and the coasts thereof.

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said. The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us: for his hand is sore upon us, and upon Dagon our god.

8 They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about thither.

9 And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, *the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction: and "he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their headed: and, behold, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.

8 Behold, here I am: witness a-gainst me before the Lord, and before his anointed: whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any spribe sto blind mine eyes therewith? and I will re-

4 And they said, Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken ought of any man's hand.

5 And he said unto them, The LORD is witness against you, and his an-ointed is witness this day, that ye have not found ought in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

6 ¶ And Samuel said unto the people, It is the LORD that advanced Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.

7 Now therefore stand still, that I may "reason with you before the Lord of all the "righteous acts of the Lord, which he did "to you and to your fathers.

8 "When Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers "cried unto the Lorn, then the Lorn "sent Moses and Aaron, which brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place, 9 And when they forgat the Lord their God, he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

10 And they cried unto the Lord, and said, "We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served Baalim and Ashtaroth: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee.

11 And the Lord sent Jerubiaal. and Bedan, and "Jephthah, and "Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelled safe.

12 And when ye saw that 'Nahash
the king of the children of Ammon came against you, dye said unto me, Nay; but a king shall reign over us: when 'the Lord your God was your king.

13 Now therefore /behold the king

13 Now therefore / Denoid the ang whom ye have chosen, and whom ye have desired! and, behold, he had been the Lord hat set a king over you.

14 If ye will 'fear the Lord, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the commandment. of the Lord, then shall both ye and also the king that reigneth over you continue following the LORD your God:

15 But if ye will anot obey the voice of the Lord, but rebel against the commandment of the Lord, then shall the hand of the Lord be against you, las it was against your fathers.

16 T Now therefore "stand and see this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes.

17 Is it not "wheat harvest to day? 1? Is it not "wheat harvest to day?" I will call unto the Lord, and he shall send thunder and rain; that ye may perceive and see that "your wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of the Lord, in asking you a king.

18 So Samuel called unto the Lord; and the Lord sent thunder and rain that day; and "all the people greatly feared the Lord and Samuel.

19 And all the people said unto Samuel, Pray for thy servants unto the Lord thy God, that we die not: this evil, to ask us a king.

20 ¶ And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: ye have done all this wickedness: yet turn not aside from following the Lorp, but serve the Lord with all your heart; 21 And *turn ye not aside: *for then should ye go after vain things, which cannot profit nor deliver; for they are vain.

22 For "the Lord will not forsake his people "for his great name's sake: because "it hath pleased the Lord to make you his people.

23 Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the LORD

the right way:
24 Only fear the Lord, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for dconsider show great things he hath done for you.

25 But if ye shall still do wickedly Tye shall be consumed, both ye and your king.

SAUL reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel.

2 Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel; whereof two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in mount Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent.

8 And Jonathan smote the garrison of the Philistines that was in 5 Gcba.

21 And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David. Thou shalt this day be my son in law in the one of the twain.

22 ¶ And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's son in law.

23 And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son in law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?

24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, 8 On this manner spake

David. 25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son in law: and the days were not texpired.

27 Wherefore David arose and went. he and *his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son in law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.

29 And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul became David's enemy continually.

6 If thy father at all miss me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run oto Beth-lehem his city: for there is a yearly 2 sacrifice there for all the family.

7 If he say thus, It is well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, then be sure that evil is determined by him. 8 Therefore thou shalt I deal kind-

8 Therefore thou shalt Josa kind with thy servant; for "thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the Lord with thee; not-withstanding, hif there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father? 9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee?

10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? or what if thy father answer thee roughly?

11 ¶ And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan said unto David, O LORD God of Israel, when I have sounded my father about to morrow any time, or the third day, and, behold, if there be good toward David, and I then send not unto thee, and shew it thee;

13 The LORD do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the Lord be with thee, as he hath been with my father. 14 And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of the Lord, that I die not:

15 But also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth.

M Let the LORD even require it at the hand of David's enemies. 17 And Jonathan caused David to swear again, 6 because he loved him: "for he loved him as he loved his own soul. 18 Then Jonathan said to David,

"To morrow is the new moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be 7 empty.

19 And when thou hast stayed three days, then thou shalt go down 83 quick-ly, and come to pthe place where thou didst hide thyself when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by the stone 8 Ezel,

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark.

21 And, behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them; then come thou: for there is peace to thee, and 2 no hurt; as the LORD liveth.

22 But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee; go thy way: for the LORD hath sent thee away.

23 And as touching the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the LORD be between thee and me for ever.

24 ¶ So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat.

25 And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty.

26 Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, he is not clean; surely he is not clean.

27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that David's place was cumpty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor to day?

28 And Jonathan answered Saul,

David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-lehem: 29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there; and now. if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he cometh my brethren. Therefore not unto the king's table.

30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, 34 Thou son of the perverse re-bellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness ?

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he 5 shall surely dic.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, "Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done?

33 And Saul *cast a javelin at him to smite him: "whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

until David exceeded.

42 And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, The LORD be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever. And he arose and departed: and Jonathan went into the city.

THEN came David to Nob to "Ahimelech the priest: and Ahimelech was bafraid at the meeting of David, and said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?

2 And David said unto Ahimclech the priest, The king hath commanded me a business, and hath said unto me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed my servants to such and such a place.

3 Now therefore what is under thine hand? give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or what there is 6 present.

4 And the priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is 'hal-lowed bread; 'dif the young men have kept themselves at least from women. 5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in a manner common, 7 yea, though it were sanctified this day fin the vessel.

6 So the priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the shewbread, that was taken from before the Lord, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the scr-vants of Saul was there that day, detained before the Lorp; and his name was 'Doeg, an Edomite, the chiefest of the herdmen that belonged to Saul.

8 ¶ And David said unto Ahimelech, And is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste.

9 And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in *the valley of Elah, 'behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is no other save that here. And David said. There is none like that; give it me,

11 And "the servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, "Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

13 And <sup>p</sup> he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and *scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard.

14 Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man 4 is mad: wherefore then have ye brought him to me?

15 Have I need of mad men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the mad man in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?

YOW it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from "the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag;

2 It came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, ba man came out of the camp from Saul with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obcisance. 8 And David said unto him, From whence comest thou? And he said unto him. Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.

4 And David said unto him, 2 How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered. That the me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.

5 And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead?

6 And the young man that told him said, As I happened by chance upon dmount Gilboa, behold, 'Saul leaned upon his spear; and, lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after 7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me. And I answered, 8 Here am I.

8 And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite.

9 He said unto me again, Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me: for anguish is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 So I stood upon him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord.

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and grent them; and likewise all the men that were with him: 12 And they mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen of Israel; because they were lanced by the sword.

18 ¶ And David said unto the young man that told him, whence art thou?

And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.

14 And David said unto him, how wast thou not 'afraid to *stretch forth thine hand to destroy the LORD's anointed? 15 And David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died. 16 And David said unto him, "Thy blood be upon thy head; for "thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain the Lord's anointed

18 (Also he bade them teach the children of Judah the use of the bow: behold, it is written pin the book 2 of Jasher.)

19 The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places: 4 how are the mighty fallen

20 'Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askelon; lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

21 Ye "mountains of Gilboa. "let there be no dew, neither let there be rain, upon you, nor fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan turned not back, and the sword of Saul returned not empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and spleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided: they were swifter than engles, they were a stronger than lions.

24 Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet, with other delights, who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

25 How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thine high places. 26 I am distressed for thee, my 27 And Joab said, As God liveth, unless "thou hadst spoken, surely then 2 in the morning the people had sgone up every one from following his brother.

28 So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more. 29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and they came to Mahanaim.

80 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lack-ed of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel.

81 But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three hundred and three-

32 ¶ And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Both-lehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

CHAPTER III.

1 During the war David still waxeth stronger. During the vear David still wazeth stronger. 2 Six sons verve born to him in Hebron. 6 Abuer, displeased with Inh-dasheth, 12 resulted to David. 31 David requireth a condition to bring him his wife Michal. 17 Abuer, having communed with the Irwalites, in feasted by David, and dismissed. 22 Josh, returning from bulle, is displeased with the king, and killeth Abuer. 25 David curseld Joud, 31 and woornels for Abuer.

NOW there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

2 ¶ And "unto David were sons born in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, bof Ahinoam the Jez-reclitess:

5 And the sixth, Ithream, by Eglah

David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

6 T And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine, whose name was 'Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner. Wherefore hast thou Igone in unto my father's concubine?

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, Am I a dog's head, which against Judah do shew kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou charg-est me to day with a fault concerning this woman?

9 h So do God to Abner, and more also, except, 'as the Lord hath sworn to David, even so I do to him:

10 To translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, *from Dan even to Beersheba

11 And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

12 ¶ And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? saying also, Make thy league with me, and, behold, my hand shalt be with thee, to bring about all Israel unto thee.

13 ¶ And he said, Well; I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, 2 that is, 1 Thou shalt not see my face, except thou first bring "Michal Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face.

14 And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, which I espoused to me "for an hundred forcskins of the Philistines.

16 And her husband went with her <sup>3</sup>along weeping behind her to <sup>p</sup> Bahu-rim. Then said Abner unto him, Go, return. And he returned.

17 ¶ And Abner had communica-tion with the elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David 4 in times past to be king over you:

18 Now then do it: for the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemics.

19 And Abner also spake in the ears of 'Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin. 20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner and the men that were with him a feast.

21 And Abner said unto David, I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a league with thee, and that thou mayest reign over all that thine heart desireth.
And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

22 ¶ And, behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David 13 And Joab drew nigh, and the people that were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joah returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

15 ¶ And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Is-rael, they gathered themselves together.

16 And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the river: and they came to Helam; and Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And when it was told David he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him.

18 And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew the men of seven hundred chariots of the Sy-rians, and forty thousand borsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, who died there.

19 And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and Iserved them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

2 ¶ And it came to pass in an eveningtide, that David arose from off his bed, band walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon.

3 And David sent and enquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this <sup>5</sup> Bath-sheba, the daughter of <sup>6</sup> Eliam, the wife <sup>d</sup> of Uriah the Hittite?

4 And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and he lay with her; 7 for she was /purified from her uncleanness: and she returned unto her house.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child.

6 ¶ And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Urish the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him 8 how Josh did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered.

26 ¶ And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband. 27 And when the mourning was past, David sent and fetched her to his house, and she gbecame his wife, and bare him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Nathan's parable of the eve lamb causeth Da-vid to be his own judge. 7 David, reproved by Nathan, confessed, his sin, and is par-doned. 16 David mourneth and prayeth for the child, while it lived. 24 Solomon is born, and numed Jedidiah. 26 David taketh Rabbuh, and tortureth the people thereof.

AND the Lord sent Nathan unto David. And he came unto him. and baid unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor.

2 The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds: 3 But the poor man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own 5 meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter,

4 And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

5 And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the Lord liveth, the man that hath done this thing 6 shall surely die:

6 And he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity. 7 ¶ And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I danointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul:

§ ¶ And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, 'living in wildowheel. widowhood.

4 Then said the king to Amasa, d5 Assemble me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present.

5 So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah: but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

6 And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou 'thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and cescape us.

6 Heb, deliver himself from our eyes, f ch. 8. 18, 1 Kin. 1. 38.

7 And there went out after him Joab's men, and the /Cherothites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joal's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joah's hand: so he smote him therewith in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and 7 struck him not again; and he died, So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. 11 And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still. 13 When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Shoba the son of Bichri.

16 Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Josh, Como near hither, that I may speak with thee.

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Josh? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spake, saying, 4 They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter.

19 I am one of them that are peace-able and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to descroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up " the inheritance of the LORD?

20 And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy.

21 The matter is not so: but a man of mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, hath lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the wo-man said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

22 Then the woman went unto all the people "in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they eretired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

23 T Now Joah was over all the host of Israel: and Benaiah the son of Jehojada was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites:

24 And Adoram was Pover the tribute: and I Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was 7 recorder :

25 And Sheva was scribe: and "Zadok and Abiathar were the priests: 26 'And Ira also the Jairite was a chief ruler about David.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 David, in his last words, professelh his faith in God's promises to be beyond sense or ex-perience. 6 The different state of the wicked. 8 A catalogue of David's mighty men.

NOW these be the last words of David. David the son of Jesse said. and the man who was raised up on high, bthe anointed of the God of Jacob, and the sweet psalmist of Israel, said,

2 'The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my

8 The God of Israel said, dthe Rock of Israel spake to me, 3He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God.

4 And fhe shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds; as the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain. 5 Although my house be not so with God: 9 yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although he make it not to grow.

6 T But the sons of Belial shall be all of them as thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands.

7 But the man that shall touch them must be 4 fenced with iron and the staff of a spear; and they shall be utterly burned with fire in the same place.

8 ¶ These be the names of the mighty men whom David had: 5 The Tachmonite that sat in the seat, chief among the captains; the same was Adino the Eznite: 6he lift up his spear against eight hundred,

9 And after him was * Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines that were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away 10 He arose, and smote the Philis tines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword: and the LORD wrought a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil.

11 And after him was Shammah
the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together 2 into a troop, where was a piece of ground full of lentiles; and the people fled from the Philistines.

12 But he stood in the midst of the ground, and defended it, and slew the Philistines: and the Lorp wrought a great victory.

13 And 13 three of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto "the cave of Adullam: and the troop of the Philistines pitched in "the valley of Rephaim.

14 And David was then in an hold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Beth-lehem.

15 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate!

16 And the three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: nevertheless he would not drink thereof, but poured it out unto the LORD.

17 And he said, Be it far from me, O Lord, that I should do this: is not this p the blood of the men that went in joopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty

18 And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred, 4 and slew them, and had the name among 19 Was he not most honourable of three? therefore he was their captain: howbeit he attained not unto the first three.

20 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man, of Kabzeel, who had done many acts, he slew two blionlike men of Moab: he went down also and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow:

21 And he slew an Egyptian, 7a goodly man: and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.

22 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name a-mong three mighty men.

23 He was's more honourable than the thirty, but he attained not to the first three. And David set him tover his 92 guard.

24 "Asahel the brother of Joah was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem.

I. KINGS, VII. was an hundred cubits, and the pillars: seven for the one chapiter, and seven for the other chapiter. 18 And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the chapiters that were upon the top, with pomegran-ates: and so did he for the other chapiter.

19 And the chapiters that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily work in the porch, four cubits, 20 And the chapiters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was by the network: and the pomegranates were two hundred in rows round about upon the other chapiter.

21 And he set up the pillars in the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof 2 Jachin; and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof <sup>3</sup> Boaz.

22 And upon the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished.

23 ¶ And he made ™a molten sea, ten cubits 4 from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.

24 And under the brim of it round about there were knops compassing it, ten in a cubit, "compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, when it was east.

25 It stood upon "twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all

26 And it was an hand breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained p two thousand baths.

27 ¶ And he made ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it. 28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had borders, and the borders were between the ledges: 29 And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubims; and upon the ledges there was a base above; and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions made of thin work. 80 And every base had four brasen wheels, and plates of brass: and the four corners thereof had undersetters: under the laver were undersetters molten, at the side of every addition.

31 And the mouth of it within the chapiter and above was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a cubit and an half:

a And it was covered with cedar above upon the <sup>2</sup> beams, that lay on forty five pillars, fifteen in a row. 4 And there were windows in three rows, and <sup>2</sup> light was against light

5 And all the 4 doors and posts were square, with the windows: and light was against light in three ranks.

of And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was before them: and the other pillars and the thick beam were 6 before them.

7 Then he made a porch for the throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar 7 from one side

8 ¶ And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of the like work. Solomon made also an house for Pharaoh's daughter, bwhom he had taken to <sup>6</sup> ch. 3. 1. 2 Chr. 8. 11.

13 ¶ And king Solomon sent and fetched d Hiram out of Tyre.

14 'He was a widow's son of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass: and he was filled with wisdom, and understanding, and cunning to work all works in brass.

And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work.

15 For he 9 cast h two pillars of brass, of eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits did com-pass either of them about.

16 And he made two chapiters of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapiter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapiter was five cubits:

and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, foursquare, not round.

82 And under the borders were four wheels; and the axictrees of the wheels were 2 joined to the base; and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit. 83 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axietrees, and their naves, and their folloes, and their spokes, were all molten.

84 And there were four undersetters to the four corners of one base: and the undersetters were of the very base itself. 85 And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders there-

36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof. he graved cherubins, lions, and palm trees, according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about.

87 After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one size.

38 Then made he ten lavors of brass: one laver contained forty baths: and every laver was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten bases one laver. 39 And he put five bases on the right 4 side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house castward over against the south. 40 ¶ And 6 Hiram made the lavers, and the shovels, and the basons. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the house of the LORD : 41 The two pillars, and the two bowls of the chapiters that were on the top of the two pillars; and the two rnetworks, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars; 42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, even two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that were supon the pillars 43 And the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases:

44 And one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea;

45 'And the pots, and the shovels, and the basons: and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of the LORD, were of 7 bright brass.

47 And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the brass 2 found out.

48 And Solomon made all the vesscls that pertained unto the house of the Lorp: "the altar of gold, and "the table of gold, whereupon "the shewbread was,

49 And the candlesticks of pure gold, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, with the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold, 50 And the bowls, and the snuffers, and the basons, and the snuners, and the basons, and the 2 censers of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the temple. 51 So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the Lord. And Solomon brought in the "things b which David his father the dedicated; even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, did he put among the treasures of the house of the LORD.

THEN Solomon assembled the L clders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the tchief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, bthat they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

2 And all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon at the dfeast in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month.

3 And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark.

4 And they brought up the ark of the Lorp, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, even those did the priests and the Levites bring up.

5 And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

6 And the priests *brought in the ark of the covenant of the Lorn unto this place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubins.

8 And they drew out the staves, that the bends of the staves were seen out in the 6 holy place before the oracle. and they were not seen without: and there they are unto this day.

Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud a filled the house of the Lord,

11 So that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of the Lord,

16 Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build an house, that by name might be therein; but I chose David to be over my people

17 And dit was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. 18 And the LORD said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto my name, thou didst well that it was 19 Nevertheless/thou shalt not build the house; but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my name.

20 And the LORD hath performed his word that he spake, and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the Lord promised, and have built an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

21 And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And Solomon stood before the altar of the Lord in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and *spread forth his hands toward heaven:

the earth? behold, the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded?

28 Yet have thou respect unto the supplication, O Lord my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to day:

29 That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said, 'My name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make '4to-

30 "And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy proposed Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: and hear thou in heaven thy dwe!ling place: and when thou hearest, forgive.

AND, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto Beth-el: band Jeroboam stood by the altar 4to burn incense.

2 And he cried against the altar in the word of the Lord, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the Lord; Behidd, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee.

8 And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the Lorp hath spoken; Behold, the Jis. 7, 14. John 2, 18, 1 Cor. 1, 22, altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out.

4 And it came to pass, when king 4 And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Beth-el, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him.

5 The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

6 And the king answered and said 6 And the king answered and saud unto the man of God, 'Intreat now the face of the Lord thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought '5 the Lord, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before.

7 And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and /I will give thee

1 Ram. 9, 7, 2 Kin. 5, 15. a reward.

8 And the man of God said unto the king, If thou wilt give me half thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place:

9 For so was it charged me by the A1 Cor. 5.11. word of the LORD, saying, A Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that thou camest, 10 So he went another way, and re-turned not by the way that he came to Both-el.

11 ¶ Now there dwelt an old prophet in Beth-el; and his 2 sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el: the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father.

12 And their father said unto them, What way went he? For his sons had seen what way the man of God went, which came from Judah.

13 And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass: and he rode thereon,

14 And went after the man of God and found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Ju-dah? And he said, I am. 15 Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and cat bread.

16 And he said, 'I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place:

17 For 8 it was said to me by the word of the LORD, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest.

18 He said unto him. I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him.

19 So he went back with him, and did cat bread in his house, and drank water.

20 ¶ And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of the Lord came unto the prophet that brought him back: 21 And he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saying, Thus saith the Losp, Forasmuch as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the Losp, and hast not kept the commandment which the Losp thy God commanded thee.

22 But camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the 'place, of the which the LORD did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcase shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23 ¶ And it came to pass, after he had caten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought back.

24 And when he was gone, "a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his carcase was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcase.

one way by himself, and Obadiah wont another way by himself.
7 ¶ And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Art thou that my lord Elijah?

8 And he answered him, I am: go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

9 And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me?

10 As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said. He is not there; he took an oath of the king-dom and nation, that they found thee not.

11 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

12 And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that the Spirit of the Lord shall carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant fear the LORD from

13 Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the Lore, how I hid an hundred men of the LORD's prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here: and he shall slay me.

15 And Elijah said, As the Lord of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely shew myself unto him

16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, dArt thou he that troubleth

Israel? 18 And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the Lorp, and thou hast followed Baalim. 19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount gCarmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table. 20 So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and igathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel. 21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, *How long halt ye between two <sup>2</sup> opinions? if the Lord be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Elijah unto the people, "I, even I only, remain a

27 And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry faloud: for he is a god; either he is talking, or he sis pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be

28 And they cried aloud, and q cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till 9the blood gushed out upon them.

29 And it came to pass, when mid-day was past, 'and they prophesied until the time of the <sup>2</sup> offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any 8 that regarded.

30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.

31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, "Israel shall be thy name:

32 And with the stones he built an altar "in the name of the Lord: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.

33 And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and "pour it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third And they did it the third time.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Ben-hadad, not content with Ahab's homage, besiegeth Sumuria. 13 By the direction of a grouphet, the Syrians are slain. 22 As the prophet forewarmed Ahab, the Syrians, trusting in the radleys, come updinst him in Aphel. 28 By the word of the prophet, and Gotts judgment, the Syrians are mutten again. 31 The Syrians submitting themselves, Ahab sendeth Ben-hadad array with a coreanst. 35 The prophet, under the purable of a prisoner, naking Ahab to judge himself, denonacels Got's judgment against him.

AND Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together: and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it.

2 And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said unto him, Thus saith Ben-hadad

3 Thy silver and thy gold is mine; thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered and said. My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I have.

5 And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children; 6 Yet I will send my servants unto thee to morrow about this time, and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that whatsoever is 2 pleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away

7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, Mark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischief: for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and 8I denied him not.

8 And all the elders and all the people said unto him, Hearken not unto him, nor consent.

9 Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again.

10 And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, <sup>a</sup> The gods do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me.

11 And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off.

12 And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad heard this 5 message, as he was bdrinking, he and the kings in the spavilions, that he said unto his servants, 7 Set yourselves in array.

THEN Moab arebelled against Israel safter the death of Alush. 2 And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and the sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, enquire of Baul-zebub the god of Ekron whether I shall recover of this disease cover or this disease.

3 But the angel of the Lord said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, is it not because there is not a God in Lord that there is country as Fig. 1. Israel, that ye go to enquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron?

4 Now therefore thus suith the Lorn. <sup>2</sup>Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah

5 ¶ And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them,

Why are ye now turned back? 6 And they said unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to enquire of Baalzebub the god of Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely dic.

3 Heb, What was the manner of the man?

7 And he said unto them, 3 What manner of man was he which came up to meet you, and told you these words?

8 And they answered him. He was d an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.

9 Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and, behold, he sat on the top of an hill. And he spake unto him, Thou man of God, the king hath said, Come down.

10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then 'let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

11 Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down quickly.

12 And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

13 ¶ And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and 2 fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight.

14 Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

15 And the angel of the Lord said unto Elijah, Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him unto the 16 And he said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to enquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, is it not because there is no God in Israel to enquire of his word? therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

17 ¶ So he died according to the word of the Lord which Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram reigned in the spoken are of Je. his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah : because he had no son.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not writ-ten in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

CHAPTER II.

12 ¶ And Elisha saw it, and he cried. * My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

13 He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the 4 bank of Jordan;

14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the vaters, and said, Where it the Load of the Load; but not like his father, God of Elijah? and when he also and like his mother: for he put away had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither: and Elisha went over.

15 And when the sons of the prophets which were to view at Jericho saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him. 16 ¶ And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest peradventure the Spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send. 17 And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not.

18 And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not?

19 ¶ And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water is naught, and the ground 4 barren.

20 And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him.

21 And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and "cast the salt in there, and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren land.

22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake, 23 ¶ And he went up from thence unto Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Go up, thou bald head; go up, thou bald head.

24 And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. And there came forth two she bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them.

even empty vessels; "2 borrow not a few. 4 And when thou art come in thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.

5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her;

and she poured out.

6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil staved.

7 Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy s debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.

8 ¶ And 4it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a great woman; and she 5 constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread.

9 And she said unto her husband. Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy man of God, which passeth

10 Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.

11 And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there.

12 And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people.

14 And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no child, and her husband is old.

15 And he said, Call her. when he had called her, she stood in the door.

16 And he said. About this 6 season. according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, awaked.

Nay, my lord, thou man of God, /do not lie unto thine handmaid.

17 And the woman conceived, bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

18 ¶ And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers. 19 And he said unto his father, My head, my head. And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother.

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.

21 And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out.

22 And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again. 23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is neither new moon, nor sabbath. And she said, It shall be 2 well, 24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; "slack not thy riding for

25 So she went and came unto the man of God to mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, youder is that Shunammite:
